- First Paragraph (present tense) I'm writing from... It is ... We are....

Hi Sara,

I'm writing from Cartagena! It is a beautiful city on the coast of Colombia. We are staying in a small hotel near the beach. The weather is sunny and hot, and the people are very friendly.

- Middle Paragraphs (present tense)

We have just arrived in... I have ...(eaten/ visited/ eaten...) It was...

We have just arrived in the city this morning. I have already visited the old city walls and the castle San Felipe. I also ate coconut rice and fried fish — it was delicious! We walked around the historic center and took lots of pictures. It's so colorful and full of life.

- Final Paragraph (present continuous for future tense)

Tonight/tomorrow/ on the weekend we are going to... I'm going to... It will be...

Tomorrow, we are going to visit the Rosario Islands and swim in the sea. I'm going to buy some souvenirs for my family. It will be a fun and relaxing day!

Talk to you soon!

Best,

Valentina
