

Sesión 5 Singular and Plural

Singular means one thing. Plural means more than one thing.

1. Mrs. Jones has two naughty children.
2. A flock of wild geese just flew noisily overhead.
3. Three tiny mice scurried quickly through the kitchen.
4. Mother cut the cheese sandwich into two halves.
5. The dental hygienist cleaned my teeth.
6. The old women at the bus stop had striped umbrellas.
7. Grandpa carefully sharpened the knives in the kitchen.
8. Those people were shouting angrily at the players.
9. Mandla bought two loaves of seed bread.
10. The busy men were fixing the large hole in the street.
11. I heard a pack of wolves howling loudly in the forest.
12. The farmer's sheep walked slowly into the field.
13. The young ladies peel the potatoes.
14. The caterpillars suddenly turned into stunning butterflies.
15. There were high cliffs and beautiful valleys.
16. The buffalo have four feet.

17. The rotten thieves stole the bright red cherries.

18. Those boys had to do many quizzes.

19. The foxes played happily among the cacti.

20. The elves had fun at the spring parties.